

Electronic Information Transfer Waiver

By use of J.V. Burkes & Associates, Inc. electronic data, the client or any of its authorized users understands that the information contained in the signed and stamped documents shall be deemed to be correct and superior to electronic information. Nothing in the transfer of electronic data shall be construed to provide any right of the client to rely on the information provided, or that the use of electronic information implies the review and approval by the surveyor of any subsequent drawing based on the information. J.V. Burkes & Associates, Inc. electronic information provides design information current as of the date of the signed and stamped document only. The client or any of its authorized users are responsible for updating the information to reflect any changes in the design following the preparation date of the transferred data.

Furthermore, J.V. Burkes & Associates, Inc. electronic information is a component of the instruments of service and is only for the client's benefit on the specific project and for a specific use.

J.V. Burkes & Associates, Inc. makes no representation of the suitability of the electronic information for other purposes, of the durability of the information, or the medium through which the information is furnished.

Any use of the J.V. Burkes & Associates, Inc. electronic data for a purpose other than that for which the information is intended shall be at the receiver's risk, and the receiver shall protect and indemnify J.V. Burkes & Associates, Inc. from any claims, costs, losses or damages.

Transfer of the information does not transfer any license to use the underlying software nor does it extinguish the rights of the J.V. Burkes & Associates, Inc. to reuse the information in the course of a professional practice.
